

CHALLENGE

Waiting until later for what you want now

WEEK 3

MEMORY VERSE | Psalm 27:14

PATIENCE GAME:

Tonight's dinner is going to take some... you guessed it: patience! Everyone rank the food on their plate from their least favorite to their most favorite. Then, one at a time, from youngest to oldest, eat your meal, starting with your least favorite food and gradually making your way to your favorite. You can't start eating your next dish until the person younger than you has eaten theirs.

While you wait your turn to eat, share some stories about when you had to wait for something you really wanted. How did you wait: patiently or impatiently? What would you do differently now?

Once everyone has patiently waited to eat all of their food, celebrate all that patience with the Easter candy (see "Just for Fun" below) you've been staring at during dinner!

Just for FUN!

If you have any Easter candy leftover, let each family member choose a piece and place it in the middle of the table. Then play the patience game!
