

CONFIDENCE

WEEK 2

LIVING LIKE YOU BELIEVE WHAT GOD SAYS IS TRUE

MEMORY VERSE | Psalm 27:13

FOOD for THOUGHT:

College student Haley Klinger was running a half marathon when it became clear she wasn't going to be able to finish the race. She was almost at the finish line, but she was about to collapse when another runner came to her aid. Soon she was surrounded on both sides by two runners who held her up as she walked to the end of the race. Haley was able to walk across the finish line and complete the half marathon!

Who gives you the power and strength to do hard things? What are you facing that seems impossible? How can you complete it? Who do you see around you that needs help to complete the impossible? How might God use YOU to make the impossible, possible?

Just for

Watch Haley finish the race!
