

Service

LENDING A
HAND TO HELP
SOMEONE ELSE

MEMORY VERSE | Mark 9:35

FOOD for THOUGHT:

Maurice Adams is only eight years old, but he doesn't let his age hold him back from serving people in need. When he was in the car with his mom one day, he saw an elderly woman struggling to walk up the stairs. He asked his mom if she could stop the car so he could help the woman. Maurice hopped out of the car and helped the woman climb the stairs. When they made it to the top, the woman stopped to hug the child who had taken time to help her. What Maurice didn't know is that a passerby saw this act of service and stopped to film Maurice and his new friend, and now his act of service is inspiring others to help in seemingly small ways.

Name all the steps that Maurice had to take before he ever took an actual step to serve (i.e., paying attention to the needs of others, etc.). Why do you think we sometimes don't stop to help when we are in similar situations? How old do you think you have to be to serve others?

Just for FUN!

Watch Maurice's simple act of service make a difference.
