MEMORY VERSE | Mark 9:35

SECRET SERVICE CHALLENGE:

This week, your family is going to pull off a Secret Service Challenge. No, this has nothing to do with the agency that protects the president. You are going to serve as a family in secret. Like any good mission, you need a plan, so fill this out together, then get to serving.

Your target (who around you needs a helping hand?): _____

Your mission (how can you help them?): _____

Your plan (get specific: day, time, steps to take, who does what): _____

Your mission code word (a fun word to use when talking about your covert mission): _____

Your win (what will be considered a successful mission?): _____

Just for
